Incorporation Meet Called by Brown

If there were not so many things to keep Joe Citizen agitated, the Big Enemy of all Americans might be their country's oil producers — often called Big Oil.

Let's admit that without five big producers, the energy picture would be entirely different. Different, but not necessarily as bad as it is now.

Regardless of what Big Oil did to the oil producing nations of the mid-East, sheikdoms there are taking in American dollars in outrageously large amounts. The ruling class was using the income for purposes that did not accrue benefit to the people of those countries. If the people complained, their voices were unheeded.

But when sheiks of the producing nations complained, good, ol' American help responded through aid programs. The pipeline gushing the money of American taxpayers to the mid-East was almost as large as those bringing oil to American oil firms that have grown even richer than the dreams of many of the sheiks.

A lot of money we sent was in tax-break benefits to Big Oil. As the cost of oil to producers rose, so did the tax breaks. It was said that Big Oil had encouraged oil producing nations to raise prices because Big Oil tax benefits grew faster than their increased cost of product. Taxes created by the sweat of U.S. working man's brow paid the taxes which kept oil barons and oil sheiks happy.

While inflation was imperiling this nation's future, oil barons were increasing the price of gasoline and fuel oil unconscionably — adding to the pressures that might sink the country's economy.

Oil companies were supplying so much oil that storage tanks in the United States were overflowing. Nevertheless, the threat of shortages continued and oil barons continuously raised prices.

Oil barons denied making unreasonable profits as they raised prices. But when financial statement time came and reports showed profit increases as much as a thousand percent in some instances, Big Oil justified the rip-off by saying the money was needed for Research and Development.

Forthwith, the excess oil profits were invested in such things as theatres and retail chain stores. That's R&I? Big Oil flat-out refused to answer a government complaint regarding manipulation.

Long before the Arab-Big Oil short-supply and higher-price-manipulation, Big Oil was tearing at the foundation of our free enterprise system.

Big Oil was buying up every corner they could that could house a filling station. Over-saturation is bad business if you have to pay the bill. But young men who had saved a couple of thousand dollars, some using their armed service bonus, succumbed to the blandishments of Big Oil and invested their resources in Big Oil stations. These young entrepreneurs worked long, hard hours after being urged to "go into business for yourself. Be your own boss. Enjoy the free enterprise system."

Even 15-20 hour days couldn't save their investment because stations that appeared to be prospering found another competitor starting on the other corner. Big Oil's station, of course.

The new businessman often failed after a year or so. His investment was gone. He owed the oil firm. He had contributed the year-or-so of long hours for which the oil firm paid nothing. When one entrepreneur failed, they got another to take his place. Somehow, Big Oil was getting away with getting free labor and the laborer was paying Big Oil in the process.

Now that situation may be changed in California. State Senator Jim Mills has introduced SB 676 which would bar major oil companies from owning more gas stations.

Unquestionably, lawmakers at last were getting tired of the high-handed treatment Big Oil was giving them, too. Many people were sickened when Big Oil insisted the fuel shortage still existed and proceeded to close at least one San Diego station when the owner refused to keep it open all night. The owner claimed he was being denied enough gasoline to meet his daytime requirements let alone the all night shift. He refused the demand — and ARCO closed him charging that he had failed to meet his contractual obligations. They will sell the station to another poor soul for several thousand dollars which will be added to the millions of dollars excess profits the firm may show this year.

Mills says his bill is designed to stimulate competition among independent station operators in the effort to keep gasoline profits as low as possible.

State Attorney General Evelle Younger and the California Service Station Council (CSSC) representing more than 2,000 stations are supporting the bill.

Last spring Younger's Energy Task Force recommended that oil companies divest themselves of gas stations after the Task Force found that during the gasoline shortage the number of independent gas stations had decreased.

Younger's Antitrust Unit additionally found that ownership of California gas stations is concentrated in the hands of a few major oil companies who have the ability to monopolize prices.

1,900 independent gas stations were forced out of business in the past 12 months, partly due to efforts by major oil companies to squeeze them out of the picture, according to Jim Campbell, executive director of CSSC.

"Big oil companies are losing control at the wellhead, they have lost their oil depletion allowance and the last place to insure price control is the retail level," Mills said.

The measure would bar any increase in major oil company ownership of service stations after January 1, 1976.

That should be a boon to the independents, but the poor soul who gives his hard-earned money to Big Oil for his share of the free enterprise system (that possibly he fought for in one or more wars) is almost a cinch to get shafted. They'll lease him one of their "dogs" until he runs out of money. Then they'll toss him out and get another pigeon.

A companion bill making top oil management responsible for such unethical practices could slow down the operation.

But the penalty should be a jail sentence rather than a fine.

Money, they've got plenty of.

Lemon Grove residents will have another chance to decide in the cityhood destiny of their community.

Supervisor Dick Brown ordered an in-depth study made of Lemon Grove's resources following a request from citizens at a meeting last year. This finding will be discussed at a meeting Thursday, April 24 at the Golden Avenue School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. The meeting is open to the public.

With Supervisor Brown will be Charlotte Langley, the county management assistant who developed the figures for the study which fills a 40-page booklet. There will also be a representative of LAFCO (Local Agency Formation Commission). Brown said the three will explain the findings and answer all questions.

The Study

A cursory study of the booklet "Discussion of Factors; Incorporation/Annexation of Lemon Grove" indicates as did studies of previous incorporation movements, that tax rates would be lower under incorporation than they are now.

The study does not encourage nor discourage annexation or incorporation but Supervisor Brown said at a previous meeting that living in unincorporated areas is getting more costly and that the cost will continue to rise.

Jurisdictions Listed

The study will list all of the jurisdictions to which Lemon Grove residents make tax payments. Most of these are known by those on secured tax rolls.

Perhaps the only critical elements of the study, in addition to the higher cost for remaining unincorporated, is the hazard development that came when the community was considered rural. The development is a mix of residential development and some streets are in need of repair and widening.

As a city Lemon Grove

would receive an estimated $1,690,235 the first year.

Taxes Drop

The city would spend $1,918,232 leaving $227,997 to be raised by property taxes. Utilizing all of the services now in use, median property tax would drop from $11.70 per $100 assessed valuation to $10.64. Because of tax code areas being different a set figure cannot be used. However, the highest in Lemon Grove is $12.38. That would drop to $11.95. The lowest is $10.01. That would be 9.58.

Adequate Base

In a summary, the booklet notes that "the most important factor for a community to incorporate is the ability to finance needed services. Lemon Grove appears to have an adequate financial base to finance at least the current level of municipal services."

"A property tax reduction appears possible... Though some services provided by La Mesa and San Diego cities would be of a higher level than initially provided by the City of Lemon Grove, the date presented in this report indicates a potential tax reduction of .431 by incorporating."

Annexation Missing

The costs of annexation to either La Mesa or San Diego are not covered in the study. For incorporation, LAFCO conducts the hearings and gives approval. The 25 percent petition is required as in annexation. The County Board of Supervisors calls the election. A majority vote determines the outcome.

Another, and more complicated form of incorporation is through reorganization.

Reorganization Incorporation

In incorporation through reorganization local governmental agencies are included in the process. A review of the delivery of municipal services would be undertaken to determine the appropriate provider agency. Initiation of a reorganization can be by resolution of an affected public agency or by formal petition signed by 5 per cent of the affected registered voters. LAFCO and the Board of Supervisors hold hearings and a majority vote determines the outcome.

In such a case boundaries can be changed; a city may take over the operation of the taxing jurisdiction such as sewer, lighting, flood, fire, road improvement and landscape maintenance.

Income Listed

Income would be from sales and use taxes, franchise taxes, business licenses and real property transfer taxes.

Bicycle licenses, planning fees and construction permits go into the hopper, too.

From other agencies comes alcohol, motor vehicle in-lieu and gasoline taxes. Collier-Unruh gas tax, engineering funds, highway carriers business license taxes, cigarette taxes and local transportation funds produce sizeable incomes.

Fines, forfeitures and penalties; interest on investments and miscellaneous revenues all go into the pot that will be about $1,690,235 the first year.

Many services, such as utilities, will remain intact.

Opposition Noted

In the past a group of local citizens have strongly opposed any change in the makeup of the community.

Each time incorporation was tested it lost by a few hundred votes. In 1964 the vote was 3167 against; 2037 for.

In 1959 the issue lost 2783 to 2301 and in 1955, it was 2180 to 1607.

Spring Valley Woman Stabbed By Prowler

Margaret Rose (Peggy) Stai, 26, of 2513 Doubletree rd., Spring Valley, is in improved condition at Grossmont hospital where she was taken Thursday afternoon after she was stabbed in her side and back by a 17-year old youth.

Mrs. Stai surprised the youth prowling her home when she returned from shopping for groceries at the 32nd St. Navy commissary about 3:30 p.m.

The youth, a Spring Valley resident, was hiding in her bedroom. She apparently was aware that there was a prowler when he held the door and kept her from opening it. She screamed and he used a kitchen knife to quiet her.

One thrust broke her rib. Another punctured her lung. She ran from the house and collapsed on the lawn.

Mrs. Stai's husband is overseas but is being flown home. The couple have a two-year old son.

She is expected to be released from the hospital this week. The youth is in juvenile hall. He will be arraigned by juvenile authorities this week, an officer assigned to the Sheriff's Homicide Department said.

New Boundaries for Sups Is Tonight's Meet Topic

County Supervisor Dick Brown chairs a special public meeting tonight to discuss the question of redistricting with his constituents.

The meeting is at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers, 150 E. Lexington ave., in El Cajon.

The five county supervisorial districts will be redistricted in July this year to more evenly distribute the County's total population. At present the five districts are uneven in terms of population.

Each individual supervisor will chair a public meeting and Brown's is the second.

Population Equality

Population equality and having two supervisorial districts outside the City of San Diego is required by the County Charter.

Beatrice Morse, Clubwoman, Dies

Private services were held Tuesday for Beatrice L. Morse, 85, of 8354 Golden ave., Lemon Grove who died at home Saturday.

She was born in New York and came to San Diego 59 years ago, most of those years she and her husband lived in Lemon Grove.

For many years she was active in the Lemon Grove Woman's club Garden section and Book section.

In her late years she became an avid swimmer as a member of the Carman Ranch Club. She swam the club's annual "50 mile" event in 1962, '63 and '64.

She received one of the school district's first PTA Life Membership awards. At the time the district had only one school and she was an active PTA member as the district grew.

She was also a member of the Chamber of Commerce until the community became urbanized and she served the Red Cross for 25 years. During the war she and her husband brought men from the Navy to spend Sundays at their home on Golden ave.

She became active in the L.G. Congregational church when it was located on Main st.

Her charities were many but she dealt with them privately. Often, she sent checks to this newspaper to be disbursed to someone who had suffered a tragedy and whose plight had been the subject of an article in this newspaper.

She and her husband were among those who originated the old L.G. Lemon Packing Assn.

She was a charter member of the L.G. Business Women's League and a member of the S.D. Zoological society.

She contributed several valuable pieces of memorabilia on Broadway at Vista. At the to the Whaley House, a San Diego mini-museum in Old Town.

But on Saturday comes the parade itself which will be gargantuan. According to Glenda Jackson, chamber secretary, there will be about 140 units. Last year there were 69. It should take about an hour and a half for the parade to pass a given point.

In addition to Miss Taylor will ride in the parade in a who will sing, dance and lead tique autos. Sports announcer an audience participation act, Al Couppee will be in charge just now are being replayed the Main st. show will feature of this group.

NOT-SO-GRAND CANYON — This crater is one sample of the giant chuckholes that appeared in the parking area south of Broadway between Imperial ave. and Grove st. after above-average rains fell for several weeks. Angry residents blame the county for grading Broadway too high, forcing rainwater into the parking area. County officials, who spoke to the merchants at a local meeting last week claim that the drainage problem belongs to the property owners, not the county.

Her remedy was so successful, she started sharing her ideas with others. Based on the personal experience of the author, the "Total Woman" concept was developed to strengthen faltering marriages.

The course, which is based on the book, is designed to revive romance, re-establish communication, break down barriers, keep children out of the psychiatrist's office and put sizzle back into marriage, according to seminar coordinator Mrs. Libby Eldridge.

Bill Targets Newsstand Porno

Assemblyman Bob Wilson has designed and introduced legislation he says will protect young people from the influence of pornographic reading material.

Current law defines certain material as "obscene" or "harmful" matter. Wilson's bill designates a new category of matter as "offensive sexual" matter and prohibits the sale of such material in sidewalk vending machines within one and one-half miles of elementary or junior high schools.

In introducing his bill Wilson said, "The purpose of my legislation is not to completely ban this type of material, but rather to keep it away from impressionable young people. I think it is unconscionable to have this kind of materials on display in see-through sidewalk vending machines where young people walking to and from school cannot help but be exposed to it."

Lunch Money For Porno

Many youngsters are actually using their lunch money to buy adult reading matter, Wilson said. "Sidewalk vending machines not only make it too easy for youngsters to buy adult magazines and newspapers, but they also encourage them to do so by their provocative covers. In fact, sidewalk vending machines are specifically aimed at youngsters because they can't really buy similar adult reading material elsewhere."

"My legislation would be a major step in keeping adult magazines for adults and out of the hands of our young people," he said.

Tickets are priced at $3.50 adults, $2.50 students.

This Week's RECIPE

Chili Chops Create Flavor Blend

Combining the best in Mexican and Texas foods and flavors is this recipe for Chili Chops created by home economists. The stuffing for the double pork chops and the sauce in which they are baked feature a Texas favorite, chili con carne (without beans). In the style of Mexico, nuts and mild cheese are added to create a nice blend of flavors in the zesty crunchy sauce.

CHILI CHOPS

1 can (15½ oz.) chili con carne without beans, heated

3 cups soft bread crumbs

½ cup chopped salted peanuts

½ cup chopped onion

2 Tbsp. butter or margarine, melted

1 tsp. Taco Sauce

6 pork chops, 1-inch thick, with pocket

Salt

Freshly ground pepper

Shortening

½ cup shredded Cheddar or Monterey Jack cheese

Combine 1 Tbsp. chili con carne with next five ingredients. Toss lightly to moisten. Trim excess fat from chops; fill pockets with stuffing; secure with wooden toothpicks. Sprinkle with salt and pepper; brown in shortening in skillet. Transfer to 12x17½x2-inch baking dish; spoon on remaining chili con carne. Cover tightly with foil; bake at 350°F for 1½ hours or until meat is fork tender. Uncover; sprinkle cheese over chops. Bake uncovered 10 minutes more until cheese is nicely browned. Remove toothpicks before serving.

Now, today, this same experience is yours to enjoy every time you come a'calling at JUDGE TIBBS' CHICKEN AND RIBS.

HEARTY WESTERN FLAVOR!

Country style ribs brushed with the Judge's own barbecue sauce means that special flavor found only out West. You get this same scrumptious flavor with his chicken...same delicious sauce... brings to mind that savory taste you get over a hickory campfire in the crisp mountain air.

As for the Judge's Golden Fried Chicken, he dips and fries it in a very special batter. Trail bosses, ranchers and their ladies all come gallopin' over when the Judge steps into his kitchen and starts a'cookin'. Now he's packing both types of chicken and the ribs in convenient carry-out boxes to take on the trail with you.

The Judge has all sorts of other great food items, Cottage Fried Potatoes, Western Style Baked Beans, even Carrot-Raisin Salad. Whatever you choose, they've all got that just-as-you-like-it flavor! So hitch up your team and roll 'em on thru.

State Eyes 'Even-Break' Track Season

The San Diego State track team needs a win this week-end for a chance at their first .500 dual meet season in four years.

The Aztecs, currently 2-4 in dual competition, host the Anteaters of UC Irvine Saturday at 12:30. After that, San Diego has one more dual meet, May 3, with UC Santa Barbara.

Irvine, a team which is similar to San Diego's in a few respects, is coming off a 112-24 loss to San Jose last weekend. Two weeks ago, San Jose beat San Diego State, 91-52.

The Anteaters have several outstanding individuals, but are lacking in numbers and depth, a situation with which the Aztecs can empathize.

In last weekend's San Diego Relays, the Aztecs won the 2-mile relay and distance medley relay in the second major relay meet in a row (following Santa Barbara). With times of 7:36.1 and 9:56.3, the Aztecs were tied by USC, with two relay wins also (440 and mile), for the relays title of the meet.

Biggers Takes Lead With Win at Cajon Speedway

Veteran Tim Biggers jumped out front on the first lap and went all the way without a flaw to claim the first 30 lap main event at popular Cajon Speedway last Saturday night.

Driving a white Tempest convertible which was built for racing in 1969, the 34 year old asbestos contractor went across the finish line a car length ahead of Lanny Pemberton of Lemon Grove in a Barracuda. Pat McIntyre, a two time champion from Spring Valley, moved up from eighth spot to take third with his new convertible Camaro.

Ron Overman will be shooting for his first win of the new campaign Saturday night when the popular super stock cars battle again at Cajon Speedway.

Gates open at 6 with time trials set for a 6:30 start. A four-car, four-lap trophy dash will be the racing sendoff at 8.

Overman, the 1974 kingpin of the supers, had a few problems getting his 1975 Camaro ready for the opener. And he needed to replace brake cylinder before competing in the feature.

Still, the crafty driver from El Cajon got the needed power from his 388 cubic inch Chevy engine and finished fifth behind opening night victor, Tim Biggers.

Overman is one of several drivers who has switched to new machinery and some of the cars are showroom specials. There was Pat McIntyre's convertible Camaro, Javelins driven by Earl Hinkle and Dan Perry, full-bodied Camaros with George Esau and Larry Aufdengarten at the wheel and several others rebuilt to perfection.

Girl Added To 'Action News'

Remember the attractive reporter who became the first woman TV reporter to take her camera crew into the Mariner's dressing room and break the WHA barrier?

That was TV-8's Laurie Singer whose knowledge of sports is undisputed and whose appearance will excell Cosell anytime!

The native San Diegan who jogs the beaches every day, has joined the weekend "Action News" team as sports reporter for the four weekend telecasts on KFMV-TV at 5 and 11 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

She started at TV-8 as a "gal Friday" in the sports department for the late Lyle Bond in 1970. One of her goals at that time was to make it on the air as a sports reporter, and her dreams and hard work have paid off.

At least one Los Angeles station is negotiating for her services at present.

Cowboys and cowgirls will participate in events such as bareback bronc riding, calf roping, bull riding, saddle bronc riding, team roping and barrel racing.

The Rock-N-Ride Drill Team will make its ninth appearance, and the famous rodeo clowns will be present throughout the day to entertain the audience while doing their job protecting the cowboys from injury.

The Stadium Association sponsors the rodeo each year to raise funds for recreational facilities at El Capitan High School. The Association has funded a host of facilities at the permanent rodeo grounds which also host the Jr. Rodeo Assn. and Jr. Gymkhana Assn. activities.

Motocross Returns If Track Stays Dry

South Bay Park Speedway presents its regular Friday-night program of CMC Moto-Cross racing Friday, after being "muddied-out" last week.

The one-mile, three-jump course is in good shape again, and ready for Juniors and Intermediate riders in all divisions, plus the Professionals, and over 150 riders are expected again this week. Gates open at 6 p.m. with practice at 6:30 and first race at 7:30.

Saturday will see the return of the MARA Street Stock Racers.

Last week Cecil Sanders, Spring Valley, took a semi in a race marked by almost a wreck per lap in the early going.

HollyPark Program Lists 'Double Crown'

The $100,000 Century Handicap, first of nine "hundred granders" to be presented this season at Hollywood Park, and the $50,000 Coronado Handicap, an important stepping stone to the track's rich "Double Crown" for Derby-aged colts, will highlight racing action this weekend at the Inglewood oval.

To be contested Sunday, the Century will match the finest grass performers in the country. The mile and three-eighths marathon may bring together such handicap stars as Stardust Mel, La Zanzara and Astray, plus eastern invaders Outdoors and Irish Stronghold.

Sunday also will be the day some lucky patron wins $10,000 in the weekly Sunday Sweep Handicapping contest. The person or persons selecting the most consecutive winners on the official entry blank will win or split $1,000 with a bonus of $10,000 going to anyone who sweeps the card — picks nine straight winners.

Marjorie L. Everett's Stardust Mel, victorious in the Santa Anita Handicap and Charles H. Strub this winter, was voted Santa Anita's Horse of the Meeting. His toughest competition in the Century may come from his stablemate in trainer Charlie Whittingham's barn, La Zanzara. The Irish-bred mare is fresh from a come-from-behind victory in the $125,000 San Juan Capistrano and last year captured the Beverly Hills Handicap over the Lakeside Turf Course at the 11-furlong Century route.

Saturday's Coronado, a mile and one sixteenth event on the grass, will feature many of the sophomores expected to contest Hollywood's twin classics for three-year-olds, the $100,000 added Swaps Stakes (June 29), and the $150,000 Hollywood Derby July 13.

Van Burglarized

A thief took a box of tools from a van parked in front of the home of Lloyd N. Jain, of 3125 Highlands Blvd., Spring Valley, about 6:30 p.m. Friday, sheriff's deputies were told.

Jain, who operates a decorating studio, said the van was unlocked and that the thief took tools valued at $200 but left other valuables.

SAND TRAPS for everyone — even Gene Littler as he gets ready for the MONY Tournament of Champions next week at La Costa Country Club.

Littler's 'Little Setback' Doesn't Reduce His Skill

CARLSBAD — There's a lot for a ticket," he said, chuck to admire about San Diego's ling.

Millionaire
Littler joined the exclusive neighborhood of golf's millionaires last September, the eighth member of the club. He's seventh on the all-time winning list with $1,082,327. Although he didn't win a tournament in the United States in 1974, Gene had his second best fiscal year, earning $102,822. He picked up another $65,000 by winning the Pacific Masters in Japan last October.

Gene didn't wait long to win in 1975. He took the Bing Crosby Pro-Am at Pebble April 24-27 at the La Costa Country Club.

Only Arnold Palmer, 17, and Billy Casper, 16, have played in more. His participation spans 22 years of the tournament's 23-year existence.

Littler played in this elite event for the first time in 1954, when Pat Fitzsimons, one of 10 rookie starters, was only three years old. Shockingly, Gene currently is the oldest qualifier, at 44, among the 28 in the field.

Won Three Times
Littler has done exceptionally well here. He won three consecutive times in 1955-56-57. In his previous 14 efforts, he has finished ninth or better 12 times. At La Costa, Gene has finished three times.

For all his success, Gene has never enjoyed, if that's the proper word for him, the adulation of other stars.

"It's all a question of values," he said, shrugging his shoulders. "Unless you won every other week like Nicklaus and Miller or have the personality of Trevino or are dynamic like Palmer, you're sort of a forgotten man."

"But I've never wanted that much fame or money. I've always felt that a man shouldn't have 20 barrels of money when 10 will do."

Still, Gene respects the value of a buck. One year when he was refused entry into La Costa. When the nongolfing guard said he didn't believe Littler was a player, Gene gunned his 1929 Rolls Royce and roared past the guard.

"I'm Scotch, you know, and I wasn't about to shell out $6

Padres 'Opener', Part II Readied For Wednesday Night

A second attempt at staging games in Atlanta April 18-20 and Houston April 21-22 before returning home to San Diego Stadium.

The "replacement" will be Wednesday when the Padres host the Los Angeles Dodgers in the first of a two-game series with the defending National League champions.

All of the opening night events slated for April 8 which were rained out will be staged beginning with a patriotic pre-game program getting underway around 6:30 p.m. Mayor Pete Wilson will be on hand to throw out the first ball with the entire evening being wrapped up by a giant fireworks display immediately following the game.

Hernandez' Record On Line Against Shinichi Sato

Rudy Hernandez, one of the fastest rising lightweights on the west coast, will try to make it 17 straight wins as a pro this Friday when he boxes Tokyo's Shinichi Sato in a scheduled 10 rounder at the Coliseum. Hernandez is a former Los Angeles Diamond Belt Champion.

He is a resident of La Palma, Ca., the 19 year old Hernandez, a college physical education major, has scored over half his victories locally. In an impressive effort here last month he stopped previously unbeaten Gene Prado of Vera Cruz, Mexico.

"I like the way Rudy keeps his composure during the heat of battle," promoter Mickey Davies said. "He's only a teenager but he works like a 10 year veteran."

Sato's appearance marks the first time a Japanese boxer has ever fought at the Coliseum. Listed as the Orient's fourth ranking lightweight, Shinichi, 23, is an aggressive switch-hitter who depends largely on conditioning. He has a record of 22-3-1 with 16 knockouts.

Last Week
Jose Martin Flores, who trains at Dulzura, won a split decision from Irish Mike Avans, the Arizona State middleweight champion in a brutal 10-round feature.

Avans, who claims he was never cut in 125 amateur fights, fought 15 professional

Johnny Mathis To Star as Pacing Driver

LOS ALAMITOS —The second leg of the $70,000 S. Cal. Pacing Series will highlight weekend harness racing action at Los Alamitos Friday and Saturday.

The series, which will showcase such outstanding pacers as Had My Way, P.J.'s Casino, Castashadow and Ambro O'Brien, is expected to be divided into two divisions and be featured both Friday and Saturday night.

Other events on tap as the Orange County Oval closes out Grand Circuit Week include $10,000 Roarin' Grand Trot and Celerbity Derby tonight.

This week's Celebrity Derby drivers include Johnny Mathis and Sugar Ray Robinson. The regular Thursday night feature of Los Alamitos' spring harness meeting has two more weeks before the May 1 Championship, featuring Sue Ane Langdon, Jack Carter, Jerry Antonucci, Lawrence McCutcheon and Stuart Whitman along with three other weekly winners.

They will be competing for the title. A total of $3,000 in prize money will be awarded to the winners' favorite charities.

The Southern California Pacing Series moves into its second leg with a lot more of the top pacers on the West Coast ready for outstanding efforts. Had My Way, a winner of the division in the first leg, has been under two minutes several at times with a best unofficial clocking of 1:58 3/5.

Score to Settle
"We've got a real score to settle with both the Braves and the Dodgers," said Padre manager John McNamara. "We had very poor series with both clubs in 1974 and we don't plan to let it happen again. There are a lot of new faces on this team from last season, but there are enough players around who remember only too well what Atlanta and LA did to us and they've got too much pride not to want to even the score."

The San Diego-Atlanta clash on Saturday, April 19 will be televised nationally as the NBC Game of the Week ending a long absence by the Padres.

Pad-Pourri
For the record, the Padres were 1-17 with Atlanta a year ago and 2-16 against the Dodgers. Dan Spillner was the Man of the Year for the Padres in regards to the season series with the Dodgers. Dan notched both wins over the champs, throwing back-to-back five-and-six-hitters at the tail-end of the campaign when LA was fighting it out with Cincinnati for the Western Division title.

The Padres appeared on network TV once last season, being the back-up game against the Mets back in New York. Beginning with the Dodger series, the Padres will be at home for the rest of the month of April.

Delps, Women's Club Teams Lead in Early Bobby Sox Play

By Paul Stark

After a week of play in the Spring Valley Bobby Sox League the Spring Valley Women's Club and Delp Plastering lead the majors with 2-0 records and in the minors Jean's Dance Studio leads the pack 2-0.

Rain curtailed the majority of the schedule last week but that didn't bother Barbara Smith on Friday when she led Blanchard Realty to a 9-8 victory over the Spring Valley Merchants as she hit a single and two triples in five trips to the plate and drove in five runs.

Blanchard broke open a 3-1 game in the fourth inning when they exploded to score five runs on three hits, including a three run triple by Miss Smith, three walks and an error.

S. Korean Wrestlers In Grossmont Match

South Korea's finest wrestlers will include San Diego on the month long tour of the United States.

The powerful Koreans will meet a team comprised of area wrestlers and wrestling coaches at the Grossmont High School Gym Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $2.

Proceeds from the match will be used, in part, to help finance a group of San Diego high school wrestlers in competition with other scholastic wrestlers in Switzerland and Bulgaria from June 16 to July 6.

The Korean-USA match in San Diego is being sponsored by the San Diego Wrestling Foundation. The match, approved by the Amateur Athletic Union, was awarded to San Diego because of the capacity crowd in attendance at the USA-Soviet Union match last year.

ror to take an 8-1 lead.

One Hitter

Carol Saucier and Desree Buchanan combined to pitch a one hitter and fan seven to lead the Sports Emporium Thunderbolts to a 17-11 win over Goodbody's Frisky Frogs.

On Saturday Frances Shander and Susan Hobb combined to hurl a four hitter, walking five and fanning nine to lead Delp Plastering to a 8-3 win over Bargain Bin Market.

Behind 3-2 going into the fourth inning Delp took advantage of two hits, three walks and three errors for five runs to take a 7-3 lead. Sandra Leighton got the key hit in the inning with a two-run single.

Six Runs Scored

The S.V. Women's Club team scored three times in two innings for a 6-0 lead and went on to beat Little Eden 7-1. Paula Parettie and Sandy Chapman each drove in two runs with two run doubles.

Mary Foy hurled a no-hitter, fanned 13 and walked six to lead Bancroft 7-11 to a 2-1 victory over the Willenburg Goldiggers. Rhonda Smith was the hitting star for the Purple People Eaters with 3-3 and drove in eight runs.

Jean's Tigers, behind 6-4 going into the fourth inning, took advantage of four hits, five walks and eight errors to score 10 runs to take a 14-6 lead and went on to beat the Tom's Red Devils 16-8.

The Maroon Maulers lived up to their name by thrashing the Thunderbolts 23-2.

Love Decker by George Cooper

California middleweight champion George Cooper stopped San Diego's David Love in the ninth round of a 10-round scrap for the vacated North American middleweight boxing title Friday night in San Jose.

Cooper, of Oakland, had Love down for the mandatory count in the ninth when Love's right thumb appeared to be broken.

The bout was close until the sixth when Love reported he injured his hand.

Cooper's record is 41-2; Love's is 30-9.

Cooper scored a ninth round knockout over Love in a state championship fight several months ago.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

Golf, if nothing else, is a game of contrast. It is played by rich and poor, talented and totally unskilled, young and old, even females.

Someone once asked entertainer Sammy Davis, Jr. what his handicap was. "I'm a black, one-eyed Jew," answered Sammy. "Do I need anything else?"

Such is the contrast that finds a home in the game with a little too much history. Golf, according to historians, was probably first played by shepherd boys in ancient times in the hills above the river Jordan. It reportedly moved, along with the armies of Rome, into Spain, France and what is now Great Britain.

One can picture shepherd boys in the highlands of Scotland using their crooks to belt small stones from here-to-ther to while away the 20 hour summer days as they tended flocks in the shadows of Ben Nevis.

But still, historian Al Lewis, who is also the football coach at Mission Bay high school, discovered that in equally ancient times, Indians of the great southwest played a game where a curved stick was employed to hit a hand-made ball over a distance to a hole dug into the ground.

It's just possible that one of San Diego's 70-odd golf courses could date back to pre-Mayan times. And that's even before Sam Snead started to play the game.

Golf in all its glory and contrast visits San Diego next week with the 23rd rendition of the Tournament of Champions, sponsored by Mutual of New York and played at beautiful La Costa Country Club. For both players and fans, the MONY T of C is one of the real highlights of the PGA tour.

The rules of entry make it unique in all the world of golf. Only winners of four events played since the last MONY gathering are eligible to play and while some big names are always missing, a few new talents and other unknowns are always in the field.

That consistent variation can be no better measured than by the pair representing San Diego's junior golf alumni at this year's MONY doings.

La Jolla's Gene Little won the damn thing three straight times and is making his 15th appearance. Gene has been around golf long enough to remember earning $66,200 in 1962 to rank second on the money earning list and drop to 20th last year with $102,822. He's a millionaire, having won 27 tour events and has the class to drive around in a 1929 Rolls Royce.

Gene holds victories over The U.S. Open field, The U.S. Amateur field and cancer. The last was his toughest and biggest win ever.

At the opposite end of the pole is a kid from Tijuana, playing in his first MONY T of C. Victor Regalado started playing golf at 11 and was pretty much of a success in San Diego junior events. He won the Mexican Amateur when he was 20 and turned pro the next year.

Then it took him four years to win a PGA tourney. He was encouraged by Lee Trevino, who also laid a little thunder on him.

"You're just another lazy Mexican," exhorted Trevino. "You won't win until you get out and hit 400 practice balls a day."

Eventually the advice sunk in. Vic now admits he practices more than before. "But Lee misrepresents himself," smiles Regalado. "He calls himself 'Super Mex' and he's from Texas. I'm the true Super Mex."

Both agree to one thing. Outside of Little's courage in his battle against cancer, Vic and Lee claim a 'brave golfer' is a man who wears white pants while playing in the Mexican Open . . . after he drank the water.

Trevino won the PGA title last year and will be in the field at La Costa, along with the likes of "Weird Hubert" Green, Johnny Miller, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player, Al Geiberger and his USC cohort Dave Stockton.

They tee up for the MONY T of C a week from Thursday at La Costa.

It might be a good idea to get your ticket early and get up to La Costa for both practice rounds and play . . . and the contrast of your life.

Billie Jean King Due Here in May

She is known for many things; a champion of women's rights, a win over Bobby Riggs, a promoter of special sports events.

But above all, Billie Jean King is a tennis player. And just about the best women's player there is.

Billie Jean will be appearing at the Sports Arena May 9, 10, 11 as part of the San Diego's Tennis Spectacular involving the San Diego Friars and seven other World Team Tennis squads.

A member of the New York Sets, King headlines the three-day-night competition that will feature singles, doubles and mixed-doubles play among the sport's greatest stars.

Afternoon and evening matches will be played each day of the Friday-Saturday-Sunday festival involving Los Angeles, Phoenix, Golden Gate, Boston, Houston and Indiana, in addition to New York and the host San Diego teams.

Business, Government, Labor and Community organizations will meet for breakfast on April 30 at the Admiral Kidd Club in San Diego to activate the program.

Metro Director Jess R. Macias stated, "This event will be the kick-off whistle for this year's 'Summer Job Opportunities for Youth' in the private sector. It is expected that every segment of the San Diego County Community will be represented to demonstrate that the concern is everyone's responsibility."

The backbone of the Alliance are the loaned executives which staff the local Metro Office. These top-notch representatives bring with them top talent from their respective firms and companies. On loan to the Alliance for periods of from 3 months to a year, some of these reps are presently in the planning and some will be the direct contact with some 2,000 business firms throughout San Diego County.

The private sector will be encouraged to participate by committing themselves to help a needy youth by providing a summer job. "Too often, the work experience at a job makes the difference by providing the incentive to return to school and continue needed education, the opportunity to see what is expected as a full-time employee and how to prepare for a meaningful job," Macias said.

The local NAB Metro office telephone is 234-2296 at 525 "C" St., Suite 506, San Diego Downtown.

If You Believe You've Been Cheated

A series of consumer protection advisories have been prepared by the California Trial Lawyers Association to warn consumers of some of the hazards of signing a contract. The following article is one of several that will be published in this column for several weeks.

Consumers are urged to write CTLA for their Consumer Protection Pamphlet which tells "How Not to Be Cheated and Who to Contact if You Are."

The address is at the end of this week's Column.

DENIED CREDIT?

If a consumer feels that a "reporter's" credit rating report was responsible in any manner for him or her being denied credit, the consumer has a right to demand an explanation in writing from the reporting agency—provided the consumer pays a fee equal to the same charge which the credit reporting agency applies to other non-customers.

Whenever a purchaser who is seeking credit from a retailer is denied that credit, or the charge for that credit is increased in any manner because of information received by the retailer from a credit reporting agency, the retailer must notify the consumer in writing of the denial of that credit or of the increase in charge for that credit.

This written notice must contain the name and address of the reporting agency, as well as a statement outlining the above methods of obtaining disclosure of the consumer's credit rating information.

If the accuracy or completeness of any credit information contained in the credit reporting agency's records is believed to be inaccurate by the consumer, the consumer should report it directly to the credit reporting agency.

The credit reporting agency is then required by law to check into the current status of that information within a reasonable time period and correct it if it was inaccurate.

In all cases (unless the reporting agency believes that the dispute is irrelevant) the credit reporting agency must insert in its future credit rating reports for that particular consumer a notice that the information is disputed by the consumer.

Thus, the credit reporting agency will forward to all future creditors of the consumer the facts that it originally had in the credit rating report, as well as the fact that the particular consumer disputes and denies the accuracy of that information.

(To obtain a copy of the CTLA Consumer Protection pamphlet, designed to acquaint you with your rights in the law, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to CTLA, 1020 12th St., Sacramento, CA 95814. Specify whether you want it in English or Spanish.)

Park Giggling Brings Charges

It was 10:30 p.m. in Goodland Acres Park.

All was quiet. Practically. Just a few giggles somewhere in the darkness.

Goodland Acres is a county park at 8800 Troy St. in Spring Valley. It is closed at 10 p.m. Sheriff's deputies who protect what few parks there are knew that where there were giggles there were people. And that was strictly against the law to use a park at 10:30 at night.

Investigation turned up a van, the kind youngsters manage to own and drive. Some of the giggles emitted from the van. Others from the swinging area.

First the van. There they discovered two girls and a boy. The girls were 14 and 16; the boy was 17. In the van were seven cans of beer. One of them was opened and its contents mostly consumed.

Out on the swings were two boys and a girl. The boys were 18 and 17; the girl was 15. They were swinging and giggling.

In the purse of the 16-year old girl in the van officers found 9 grams of marijuana; a roach and Zigzag papers.

All were arrested after being charged with possession of alcohol by a minor except for the 18-year old. He was released in the furtherance of justice.

The 16-year old girl was additionally charged with possession of marijuana. The suspects were released to the custody of upset parents.

Man Collapses; Faces Drug Charge

Terrence Michael McIver, 27, of 421 Sacramento St., Spring Valley, was charged with being under the influence of heroin and transported to Paradise Valley hospital Sunday at 4 p.m.

Police were called by friends when the man collapsed at home. After treatment at the hospital he was booked in County Jail.

He will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court.

Concealed Weapons Charged to Motorist

Cuztodio Ramirez, 19, of 7663 Lemon Ave., Lemon Grove, a billiard parlor employee, was charged with possessing a loaded, concealed weapon Sunday when sheriff's deputies observed a gun in his car. He was parked in the business section Sunday night with three passengers in the car.

They took possession of an H&R .22 revolver with five loaded cartridges in the chamber.

Ramirez will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court. No charge was made against the three passengers.

Coins, Jewelry Nets 2 Burglars Nearly $1,300

Two Spring Valley homes were burglarized March 31 of the same kind of loot—jewelry and coins.

The two losses were several blocks apart. The total loss was $1,290.

John Ellisco Tafaya, a systems engineer for Rohr told deputies that someone removed the window from his bedroom while he was at work and took jewelry and coins.

He lives at 536 La Presa in Spring Valley.

An 8-place setting of silverware worth $250; 30 proof sets of 1971 Eisenhower silver dollars, worth $300; a proof set of a Kennedy half dollar and other coins made up the remaining loss.

He named a suspect.

Meanwhile, loss of $736 worth of jewelry and coins was reported to the sheriff's office by William C. Bryant of 3670 Saddle Dr., Spring Valley.

Lost was an 1860 $2 1/2 gold ring worth $200, a Masonic ring worth $150, and a Scottish Rite ring worth $50 made up the bulk of the loss.

FBI Crime Report Shows Double-Digit Rate Climb

Serious crime in the United States rose 17 percent in 1974—the largest increase in 14 years, Attorney General Edward H. Levi announced last March 28.

Crime soared 19 percent in the final quarter of the year after recording advances of 15 percent in the first quarter, 16 percent for the first six months, and 16 percent for the first nine months.

In 1973, by comparison, crime rose 6 percent on the heels of an actual decline of 4 percent in 1972.

"These figures represent a dismal and tragic failure on the part of our present system of criminal justice," Mr. Levi declared.

"Unfortunately, these results were predictable. In many areas of our country only a small percentage of those arrested for a felony are convicted for that offense. In addition, it is estimated that about one-third of the violent crimes committed go unreported."

The latest figures were contained in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reports, which were released March 31 by FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley. The crime statistics are based on information furnished by city, county, and state law enforcement agencies.

Violent Crimes Up 11%

The violent crimes of murder, forcible rape, robbery, and aggravated assault increased 11 percent in 1974, compared with a 5 percent rise the year before.

The more numerous property crimes of burglary, larceny-theft, and motor vehicle theft jumped 17 percent compared with a 6 percent increase in 1973.

Robbery increased 14 percent, forcible rape and aggravated assault each rose 9 percent, and murder was up 5 percent. Larceny-theft advanced 20 percent, burglary 17 percent, and motor vehicle theft 4 percent.

Suburbs Hit

Suburban law enforcement agencies reported a 20 percent rise in crime, while the rural areas reported an increase of 21 percent. Cities with 100,000 or more inhabitants reported an increase of 13 percent.

Geographically, the Southern states reported a 21 percent rise in crime. Crime in the North Central states was up 17 percent, in the Northeastern states 15 percent, and in the Western states 13 percent.

Sen. Mills Plans Breakfast Meets

State Senator James R. Mills (D-San Diego) announced the initiation of a new program by his district office, to provide for continuing contact between the Senator and his constituents. The program, to be called "Operation Communication", will involve a series of no-host breakfasts bringing the Senator together with groups of interested citizens for informal give-and-take discussions of public issues.

The breakfasts will be set up by Senator Mills' district office staff, and invitations will be sent to a broad range of community leaders and others. Any resident of Senator Mills' district is welcome to join the breakfast program by contacting the district office, and expressing an interest.

The first will be held in the East County, an area relatively new to Senator Mills' district. Subsequent breakfasts will be held in other areas. Any resident of the 40th Senatorial District, desiring to attend a breakfast, should contact Senator James R. Mills' office, Suite 201, 815 Third ave., Chula Vista, 92011, (427-7812).

Del Mar Fair Dates Set, Plans for 35,000 Entries

DEL MAR — Southern California Exposition, visited by a record 610,894 last summer, plans a 14-day fair of similar magnitude here on June 23 through July 6, according to Expo manager William D. Dumd.

Dumd, serving his fifth year as manager under the sponsoring 22nd District Agricultural Association, indicates the 86th Expo in a series dating back to 1880 will again feature top grandstand entertainment, a nationally famous flower and garden show, and the world's largest performing horse show.

Innovations this year include a one-acre uncovered section of the flower show for display of plants preferring the sun to shade, 26 new showcases for an expanded and ungraded Home Arts Show, and many new entertainment features.

Entertainment

Returning are the King Family June 23-25, an all-Serviceman's Rodeo June 23-28, and Glenn Ash July 1-3. The latter appears with Patchwork, a newcomer to the fair.

Some 35,000 entries are expected in 19 divisions of Expo competition involving around 9,000 exhibitors. Most classes are open to all Southern California counties, some are nationwide and worldwide.

Stull Wins CRA Plaudits

Senator John Stull (R-38th District) has been honored by the California Republican Assembly for scoring highest on the organization's annual rating for members of the California Legislature. The award was presented to Senator Stull at the 42nd annual convention of the California Republican Assembly in Los Angeles on April 5.

On the CRA score card, Senator Stull received 91 points out of a possible 100. Stull has been honored by the Republican Assembly every year it has presented the award since 1969. In addition to receiving the outstanding legislator award, Stull was given a lifetime membership in the California Republican Assembly.

Other Expo competitions include Senior and Junior Live-Stock, Home Arts, Art and Photo Shows, Gems and Minerals, Hobby Show, agricultural displays, Industrial Education, Tropical Fish, Poultry-Pigeons-Rabbits, and Dairy Products.

Special Events

Special events at the fair this year include Junior Livestock Auction on July 5; Photo Shoot Day June 28; Fireworks July 3, 4 and 5; Square Dance Jubilee July 6; Don Diego Batton Twirling Spectacular June 29, 30; Old Time Fiddlers' Contest June 28; Senior Citizens Day June 26 and 30; Opening Day Parade and Ceremonies; Antique Car Races and Show June 28; and Pie Baking Contest July 1.

Entertainment on the small stages is virtually continuous.

Mexican Village features Jose Gonzales-Gonzales; Marie Hitchcock, the Puppet Lady; and the Kiwi Club demonstration of bag packing. The Don Diego stage offers Don Diego Varieties starring Dick Kerr and Paul Gilbert, who will also take turns as emcee for Grandstand Shows. Community Stage will offer everything from dog obedience classes to rock bands, karate demonstrations and talent shows.

Polynesian dancing by the Aloha Maidens graces the Flower Show daily. Mariachis, a Dixieland Band and a Stiltman will add to the festivities.

As he has for 28 years, Don Diego (actor Tom Hernandez) will tour the fairgrounds daily as Expo host. He is accompanied by the reigning Fairest of the Fair queen chosen from 25 San Diego County preliminary contests.

WHO IS THIS? If you know or have an idea where you might find him, take the picture to his place of business in the Lemon Grove business district on Broadway. The first person to deliver the picture at the proper place of business wins free services from the mystery merchant. Last week, Mrs. Ray Kotnik won five free lube jobs from Fred DeLuca, proprietor of the Texaco station on Broadway and Massachusetts.

Armed Robbers Take $145 From Lemon Grove Beer Bar

The two good customers at the Good Guys Beer Bar Friday night turned out to be unwelcome guests.

Patricia Lee Richards, bar maid at the saloon at 7340 Broadway, Lemon Grove, announced at 12:55 a.m. Friday that the bar was closing. The two young men, each about 23, who had been drinking beer and playing pool, quietly finished their drinks, hung up their cue sticks and left.

After a few minutes they returned. One had a small, flat, black handgun which he used to accent his demand. "Don't try nothing. Just stay cool," he admonished those still inside. The other took $145 from the register behind the bar. The gunman warned all
